The National Community Pharmacists Association Executive Residency in Association Management is a springboard into a career of association work that will provide you with distinction as a future leader in the health care field. This residency program, conducted at NCPA headquarters in Alexandria, VA, helps distinguish you from your fellow graduates by opening up new and rewarding opportunities for you in numerous areas.

NCPA’s headquarters is located in Old Town Alexandria, and is just steps away from the King Street Metro station. Alexandria, hometown of George Washington, is rich in tradition, with a history that dates back more than 350 years. Alexandria is also only five miles from the heart of downtown Washington D.C., an international city with a cosmopolitan flair. Washington D.C. is home to the National Mall, historic monuments, the Smithsonian, and many other attractions. It also boasts a variety of unique neighborhoods, each with its own style, one-of-a-kind restaurants, shops and plenty of nightlife.

Improve your executive leadership skills via rotations through the following NCPA departments: NCPA Management Institute, Student Affairs, Conventions and Meetings, and Government Affairs! Opportunities include travel to various meetings, conventions, and conferences held by other national and state pharmacy organizations, and participation in joint pharmacy committee meetings where you will have the opportunity to network with other health care professionals. NCPA’s Executive Resident received an annual stipend as well as relocation assistance. As an NCPA employee, you receive a full benefits package that includes: 15 days vacation, government holidays, health/dental insurance, and eligibility for a 401(k) retirement savings plan.
